SKILLSPOUND PROGRAM
Look up in the sky, it's a bird, it's a plane, no it's students from Chifley College Dunheved Campus. Jamie Varga, Caitlyn McCarthy, Zack Khan and Jayden Davis are part of the Skillspond TAFE program where they have been learning about electronics.

On Thursday 7 August the students travelled to Katoomba to learn how to fly a 737 jet in the VSJET flight simulator. The flight simulator is used to train pilots to fly and problem solve potential technical hitches in a safe environment. The flights are in real time and the hydraulics that move the simulator make you feel like you are really flying.

Jamie took off from Mackay Airport and flew at 500km per hour towards Hamilton Island where Jayden landed the plane and then taxied up the runway to take off towards Proserpine. Caitlin then flew at 5000 feet to land the plane safely on the runway. Zack then took off in the plane and flew towards Brisbane where Ms Waddell landed it relatively safely!

Up, up and away! In the future, when you are flying to some exotic destination, the pilot could potentially be a former student from our school. Ms Waddell TAFE Coordinator

WAKAKIRRI DANCE STORY
On Wednesday 6 August, Chifley College dance students performed in the Wakakirri Dance Story held at NIDA (National Institute of Dramatic Art) in Kensington. We had 11 students from Dunheved Campus who represented their school in the form of Dance and Drama.

The 7 minute production tells a story inspired by Coney Island from True Love Never Dies. Each person is an individual and has many qualities that make them unique and special. “Why try to fit in when you were born to stand out!”

Watch this space for result announcements and award nominations. Congratulations to all students involved: Brittany Palmer, Beth Allen, Brittney Higgison, Eliza Drake, Robyn Hardge-Scott, Jayden Davis, Chloey Davis, Isabelle Doyle, Kyle Keith-Wheatley, Taylor Thompson, Natalie Twaddle.

Social media, kids and privacy

Regardless of your child's age, the world may already know a lot more about them than you suspect. According to recent research:

- 92% of children under the age of two have a digital presence (it starts with proud parents posting newborn baby photos on Facebook or Instagram)
- A quarter of Australian children aged between eight and 12 use Facebook, despite the minimum age for a user being 13
- More than 20 per cent of tweens publish photos of themselves on the photo-sharing website Instagram
- Young people between the ages of 14 and 19 have an average of 453 fans, friends or followers on social media.

Even if you don't know a lot about social media yourself, you can help your child stay safe online simply by asking them about the social media accounts they are using, and regularly reminding them the importance of keeping their personal information private.

The Information and Privacy Commission NSW has created a lot of practical information for parents and children, to support 2014 Privacy Awareness Week. It includes:

- Security tips for parents and teens
- Resources to help prevent identity theft
- Information on cyberbullying
- Guides to protecting your digital reputation
- Information about mobile apps and the data they may collect.

You can also find a parent's guide to social media – including Kik Messenger, Instagram, Vine and Facebook - in the www.schoolatoz.nsw.edu.au website, in particular, the School A to Z technology glossary.
